

My name is Rebecca Lynch. I am 17 years old and currently creating a folio of art work for Advanced Higher Art at Kemnay Academy. I am also studying at Aberdeen college for a PDA in Education Support Assistance.

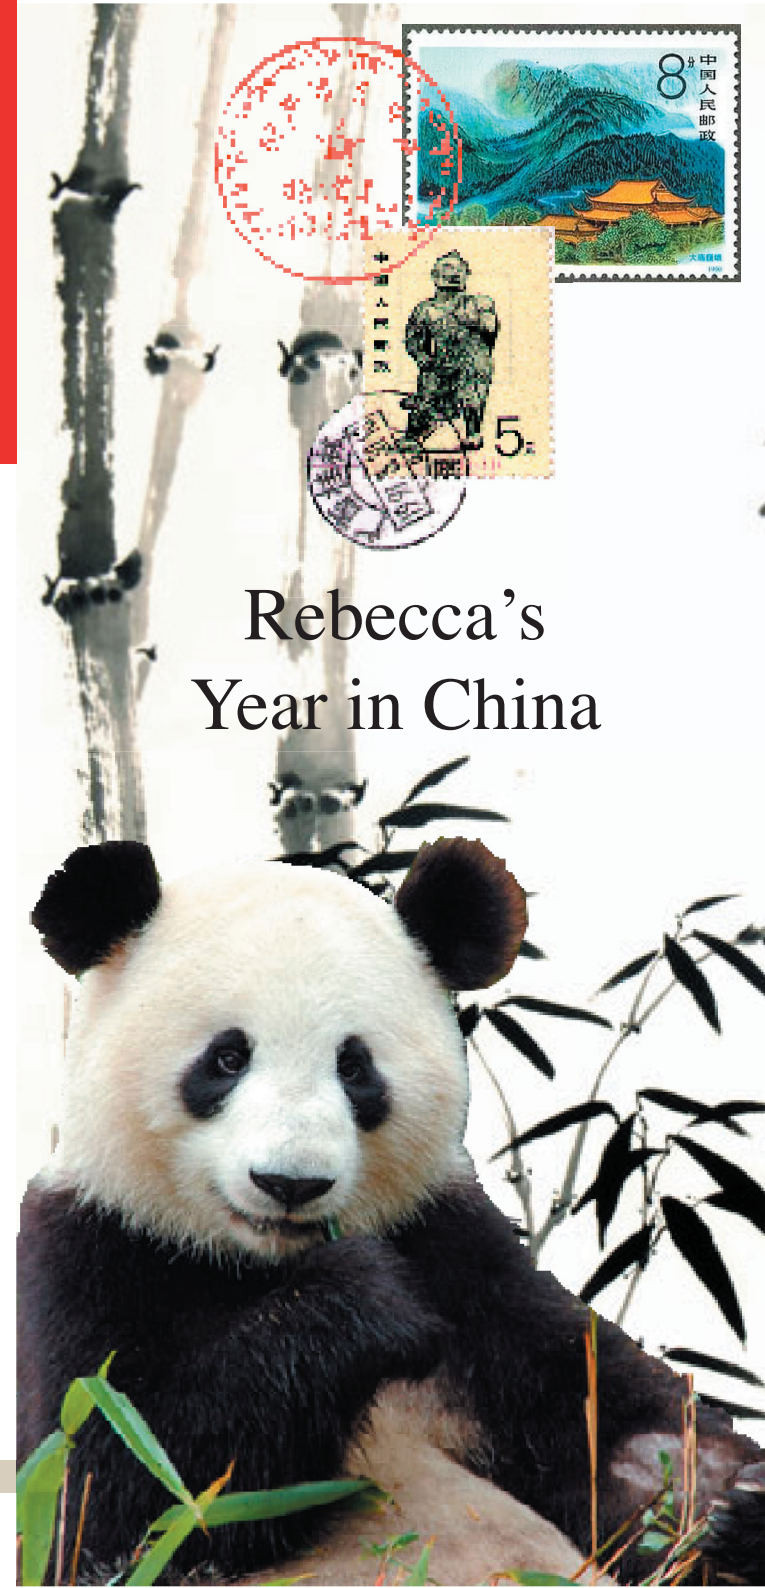

I plan to study art further, with a Fine Arts degree at either the HIU College of Art on the Isle of Lewis, or at Duncan of Jordanstones College of Art in Dundee.

Before I continue onto further education, I have decided to take a gap year and have been accepted by Project Trust to spend a year in China doing voluntary work.

Rebecca's Year in China

旅行

A journey of a thousand miles starts with a single step

Journey

Before I leave for China in July 2011, I need to raise

£4950

I plan to carry out several fundraisers, including a ceilidh in March, a bag pack at Marks & Spencers and a golf event. I have held a car boot sale, and written to a number of trusts.

Project Trust is a charity based gap year organisation.

Every year, Project Trust sends over 200 young volunteers to countries across the world, allowing them to broaden their horizons by experiencing a different culture.

In August 2010, I travelled to the Isle of Coll, off the West coast of Scotland, to take part in a Project Trust selection course. A week later, I received a letter offering me a place in China for a year.

I will be teaching conversational English to children at a school. I will also be learning about the language, culture and traditions in China during my year overseas.

Any donations, whether funds or prizes for raffles would be gratefully recieved, bringing me one step closer to getting to China.
